Our Payment Policy

To lose someone you love is a devastating human experience. It is frequently traumatic and can seriously impact judgement. It is important to celebrate the life of someone important to us when a person has died and to make the experience as meaningful as possible.

It is also important to be realistic in respect to funeral expenditures. We do not want a family to spend more than they are able, nor less than they would like. What is important is that the arrangements be in keeping with the family's wishes and budget. Payment arrangements for the services and merchandise you have selected are to be made between you and your funeral counselor at the time selections are completed and the contract is signed. When consultations are made by phone, your verbal request will be considered a legal and binding contract.

As dedicated professionals, we are committed to serving your family. Should you have difficulty meeting obligations, please discuss your situation in confidence with your funeral director.
