Casco Bay Cremation & Funeral Services is a non-traditional funeral home. We do not maintain an on-site facility for funeral services; instead, we hold services at the church of the family's choice, local cemeteries, or other community venues. By utilizing existing spaces rather than maintaining our own facility, we can provide families with high-quality, personalized services while offering considerable financial savings.

Local delivery of cremated remains no charge (within in 25 miles)

Payment Policy

We are a family-owned funeral home, and we work very hard to provide compassionate services to every family we serve. To provide our services at the most affordable cost we do require full payment before services are rendered or scheduled. We accept the following forms of payment:

1. Prepaid Mortuary Trust
2. Personal Check or Bank Check, Cash or money order
3. Visa, MasterCard or Discover. We can accept American Express, but we do try to avoid it due to high merchant cost.
4. Life Insurance assigned to the funeral home funeral home must handle the insurance and insurance must be verified prior to services being rendered.

If a family is experiencing financial hardship, we ask that you discuss this openly with our funeral directors. We will want to make sure we help every family that calls on us regardless of their current financial situation.
