Martha was born on August 19, 1926, to Henry and Maria (nee Rolfes) Crone in Garrel, Oldenburg, Germany. She attended school at Annaheim, and worked as a domestic aide for relatives and various other families. On October 7, 1946, Martha married Philip Kunz in Annaheim. They bought a homestead near the Kunz homestead and that's where they raised their family of two children. Martha and Philip moved into Humboldt in 1985, and in 2004 they moved into a condo. Martha loved to play bingo, cards and even the machines at casinos. Martha and Philip traveled to Germany, the United States, including Hawaii, and Canada. Martha loved when the grandchildren came and later the great-grandchildren. A few weeks ago all were gathered to help her celebrate her 91st birthday.

Martha will be lovingly remembered by her son Martin (Linda) Kunz of Humboldt and their family, Cora Kunz of Warman, and Lisa (Kevin) Ulrich of Humboldt and their sons Luke and Daegan; and her daughter Marie (Dave) Wesling of Humboldt and their family, Lara (Clint) Berschiminsky of Saskatoon and their children Jordan and Jenae, Ashley (Heidi) Wesling of Regina and their children Burke and Kate; two sisters: Anna Niekamp and Lucille Wuchner; two brothers: Joseph (Eleanor) Crone and John (Dorothy) Crone; sisters-in-law: Josephine Crone, Rita Crone, Josie Carrobough, and Rita Crone; and brother-in-law, Simon Kunz. She was predeceased by her husband Philip Kunz (2009); parents Henry and Maria (nee Rolfes) Crone; sisters: Elizabeth Plemel, Hedy Munkler, and Pauline Kunz; brothers: Cleo, Paul, Art, Ervin, and Donny; sisters-in-law: Lorraine Crone and Martha Crone; and by brothers-in-law: Art Munkler, Martin Wuchner, Al Plemel, and Bernard Niekamp.
