A part of this community

The funeral profession, like many American businesses, has a long and proud history of personal service provided by families with deep roots in the local community, and a deep commitment to upholding professional standards. It is very important to us to not only serve your current needs, but to build a relationship so you consider us a trusted friend to help you in the future. We have a long commitment to this area and we are proud to let you know... When you need us, we will be here.

Prior to drafting any contract for goods or services, the responsible party or the decedent's survivor who is handling the funeral arrangements is entitled to receive a copy of any pre-need agreement in the possession of the funeral establishment that has been signed and paid for, in full or in part, by or on behalf of the decedent.

“Dignified and Affordable Without Compromise”

General Price List

Prices effective as of January 1, 2026 and are subject to change without notice.

This general price list reflects Thomas-Marcom Funeral Home’s commitment to provide consumer information to each family we are privileged to serve. We know it is important you understand the alternatives available to you as well as the specific costs for each of those services. We are confident you will find the information you need within this price list. However, should you have any questions, we welcome your inquiries. Our personal service to you includes assistance with insurance claims, Veteran’s benefits, Social Security assistance and letters of verification to employers and airlines. We can assist in setting appointments for finalizing cemetery arrangements, procuring certified copies of the death certificate, obituary notification to both local and out of area newspapers, as well as other special services. Our family service staff and funeral directors provide personal service after the funeral at no additional cost to the family. We are honored by the confidence you have placed in us and are committed to service and satisfaction.
