PROFESSIONAL & STAFF SERVICES

Basic Professional Fees (requires Basic Facility Charge)

Professional consultation with licensed personnel, which may include but is not limited to, expert advice on options to meet your needs, including essential services relating to disposition, drafting notices, planning scheduling of services, advising regarding possible government benefits. A Basic professional fee is payable whenever we provide services to you.

Coordinating Rites and Ceremonies

Co-ordination of all rites and ceremonies, before, during and after they have been provided, including services and supplies provided by us, as well as those provided by third party suppliers, such as flowers and death notices.

Documentation – permits, forms, etc.

Completion and filing of all documents necessary to carry out the services and supplies requested, including but not limited to, death registration, burial permit, coroner's certificate for cremation, documentation necessary to ship the body out of the country. As part of this service, we will provide you with proof of death certificates; such certificates are usually accepted for most estate settlement purposes, but sometimes a provincial Death Certificate will be necessary and is available from the Office of the Registrar General. Also includes completing and filing of the CPP Death Benefit Forms and CPP Survivor Benefit Forms and Dependent(s) Benefit Forms.

Transport Remains

Transportation of the remains from one place to another, for example the hospital to our premises or from our premises to the cemetery or crematorium using a transfer vehicle, for distances not exceeding 100 km, a charge applies for each transportation request.

Basic Preparation of Remains (requires Facilities for preparation/embalming/shelter)

The preparation of the body for placement into the casket, including bathing, dressing and the setting of facial features for identification or viewing without embalming.

Professional Embalming of Remains (requires basic preparation of remains)

Embalming is the process of replacing blood and bodily fluids with chemical preservatives. It is a process of sanitation, restoration, and temporary preservation. Embalming is not legally required but may be recommended to preserve the body between the time of death and the visitation or disposition of the deceased. Our professional funeral directors will make a recommendation based on the condition of the body and expected service needs.

Staff Services for Visitation

- Staff to coordinate and oversee the visitation (informal gathering) at our premises.
- If the visitation takes place at an offsite location, equipment and additional staff services may be required.

Staff Services for Ceremony

- Staff to coordinate and oversee the ceremony or memorial at our premises.
